A New Book I'm Reading

This book isn't technically "new" but its been a real eye-opener. It's called "Parenting in the Pew." It is about teaching kids about the joy of worship and some strategies on teaching kids about "Big Church". Its 99 cents at Amazon. Check it out if your interested in the topic.

New Study Begins
September 19

A new study begins at 6:30 p.m. entitled, "The Dark Side." We will look at the truth about Satan, demons and the pervasive evil in the paranormal world. Satan is real and powerful, but we should not lose sight that Jesus is greater—and He is victorious! It is essential that we know who it is we battle, but we should also rest in the truth that Satan has been defeated by Christ. This study will meet in Room 124 and continues for six weeks.

A Weekend Just For Adults!

...featuring worship, fellowship, games & more
September 28-30
Guest Speaker: Mike Keahbone

Teams will engage in worship and competitive games throughout the weekend. Teams are being recruited now by 15 different captains. If you have not been recruited to be on a team, see the signup sheet on the south foyer bulletin board.

Each session begins with worship and on Friday night and Saturday afternoon, teams will engage in competition and fun. It begins on Friday at 6 p.m. and continues Saturday at 10:00 a.m. and 6 p.m. and Sunday at 9:30 a.m.

We really have a need for additional people to help in our van ministry. If we could get enough volunteers we might be able to do this on a rotation basis on Sunday mornings. We need people to pick up kids before Connection Hour and take home kids after the worship service. If you do not feel comfortable driving, we have a need for riders to assist the driver each week. Contact Kevin Slough if you would be available.

A Weekend For Adults!

...featuring worship, fellowship, games & more

September 28-30

Guest Speaker: Mike Keahbone

Worship times are 6 p.m. Friday and 10 a.m. & 6 p.m. on Saturday for anyone!

If you would like to be on a team but have not been contacted, call the church office!

What a great study "What on Earth Am I Here For?" has been. It has really been an encouragement to me. I think we all need to take to heart that "it is not about me but all about Him." This is the reason we have decided to use the theme throughout this year called "I Am Third." You may have noticed the banners that are up. It is to be a constant reminder each Sunday.

Also, on September 23 which will be our last Sunday for the emphases, we will be offering armbands that have "I Am Third" on them. If you are willing to make a commitment to try each day to live with that in mind you can pick one up. You don't want to miss that Sunday to get your armband.

D-Up is right around the corner on September 28-30. Mike Keahbone will be our preacher and the Anthony Croff Band will be with us again. Our captains are recruiting their teams so if you would like to be a part of this inspirational, fun-filled weekend and you haven't been asked to be on a team, ask one of our staff and they will connect you with a team. This is for everyone 18 and older who have finished high school.

Let me encourage you to continue reading your devotional book. It is easy to get behind and quit. Don't quit. Read what you can and let God speak to you through it. Once our campaign is over you may want to read through it again. It is so good sometimes we miss something the first time through.

Ministry Outside Sundays

Zach Foley
Outreach & Mobilization
Pastor

This last week our small groups were challenged to do a community outreach project. As the wheels of thought are turning I want to highlight a project that was just done at Cameron by our Next Step class (formerly College department). As students at Cameron returned for fall classes the Next Step class partnered with the BCM to provide a meal, games and snow cones as a way to connect with people on campus. In providing a meal they were able to meet a need; in having games and activities they were able to connect with people and begin to build relationships. If you are looking for a project, be strategic. There are a lot of good things to give money to and a lot of great service projects to help with. However, our calling is to go beyond that. We are called to make the gospel known and make disciples. So many times the pattern is meeting a need, and building a relationship so that a decision can come later. That being said, here are a few ideas for your group to entertain: Open Streets Lawton, Adopting a School, Starting a Tutoring Program, The Bridge Church, and Friend-ship International.

Many of you have benefitted from the teaching of Crisis 101, Marriage 101 and Family 101. Now, you can review those video series and many more for a limited time for free. One of the things available is called "1,500 Principles to Live by" and it is a short video teaching in an easy-to-use format for quiet times or with a small group. You can search by topic or book to find teaching you might be searching for. There are 240 topics by Dr. Gene Getz. Go to www.grace101.org and click on log in. The user name and password are the same: firsteast. Then you will select what you want to see. This is free to you for the next 16 months!

What On Earth Am I Here For? Continues Through September 23!

Remember to be in the auditorium or The Bunker (students and college) right at 9:30 a.m. for the beginning of the video teaching. Only two more Sundays remain and we continue to hear how God is at work in the lives of people through this study.

All-Church Visitation Begins!

...coming September 25 in Fellowship Hall
Teams from every age-group should be present. Take advantage of a snack supper at 6 p.m. followed by visitation, calling, writing cards and more at 6:30 p.m.

Our Newest...

Congratulations to Chris & Lacie Morrison on the birth of their twin girls, Daley weighing 4 lbs. 1 oz. and Landry weighing 4 lbs. They were born on August 28.

Thank You...

There aren't enough words to express our gratitude for all your love and support of mom. Thanks for all the calls, visits, food, flowers and cards. She enjoyed all of them so much but mostly the prayers. Thank you for all of your support during her death as well. The church provided a wonderful meal for our large family. Mom loved her church and staff members. God bless you all!
