From the Pastor

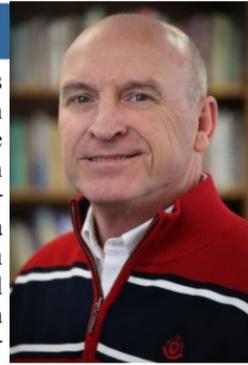

One of the great blessings is when God blesses you in such a way that you can be a blessing to others. Over the past four years God has blessed our church financially. We have been able, at the end of the year, to take some of the money and share with our staff. We have been able to update our church building and we have been able to share with other ministries who have needed our help.

This year we will have another overage. Our Finance Committee will seek counsel from our Missions Committee and our Personnel Committee. They will then bring a proposal to you as a church as to where we can best use the money God has given to us. This could only happen because you have been so faithful in your giving. What a joy it is to know God has blessed us so we can now bless others.

Our Date Night will return on February 15. We will meet at 6:00 p.m. I will be sharing about the damaging effect anger has upon a marriage and how we can begin to deal with it. This is for all ages. If you have children, they can be left at the church. The cost is $5 per child, with a maximum of $15. I will teach until 6:45 and then you will have until 9:00 to pick up your children. There is no need to register for the marriage enrichment unless you are bringing your children (ages birth-5th grade). Hope to see you on "Date Night with Doug."

Our theme for this year is "I Am Third." We have bracelets you can take and wear for free. If you are a Christian and you seek to make God first by being in Connection Hour and you seek to put others before yourself, you can sign the board in the middle hallway and pick up your bracelet. Let's try to live our lives by our theme "I Am Third." —Bro. Doug

We are having church visitation only once in February and March, so mark this date! This night is set aside for you to come to the church to make visits, calls, write cards, or send texts/emails. Every age-group department from preschool to adults should plan to have a team or more present on these nights. A snack supper is provided at 6 p.m. followed by visitation at 6:30 p.m.

Trey Smart
Minister of Education

"The welcoming church is more of an attitude or disposition. It represents the mind-set of an outward focus rather than an inward focus. It is about serving rather than being served."

THERE'S A PLACE OF MINISTRY FOR YOU ON ONE OF OUR WORSHIP TEAMS!

All of us as Christians should be involved in worship. Our Savior is worthy of the highest praise and honor, and it is truly our duty AND privilege to worship Him! However, many feel a special calling to use their talents and gifts in more of a leadership role. For those people, we have an opportunity for every age group to participate in a choir. If you love to sing and feel a desire to bring your worship experience to new heights, then a choir is for you. Let me encourage you to try one of these groups out: Adult Choir meets from 6:15 to 7:30 p.m. on Wednesdays in the Choir Room. Youth and Children's Choir meet on Sundays from 5:00 to 6:30 p.m. There's a place for you in one of these groups - JOIN US!

Ministry Outside Sundays

Have you ever read about the life of Paul? Paul is such a celebrated Bible hero, a missionary legend, yet Paul had every reason imaginable to quit. Think about it, Acts 9, Paul comes to faith and begins to proclaim Jesus. The response: the Jews tried to kill him. Soon after Paul shows up in Jerusalem to catch up with the leaders of the church, and they reject him. And that is just the first three years of his new life in Christ!

One of the often romanticized positions in the church is that of a missionary. Sure, there are often great testimonies that come once that missionary's work is done, but sometimes the strength to press on is hard to come by. I think about Rylee who is in Wales for a semester of college. She is there furthering her education yet using it as an opportunity to make Christ known. As glorified as this sounds, the majority of people she is around are atheist, mocking Christianity, and making fun of Americans. Here is where you and I come in. Let's not forget Rylee, nor the others such as Danny Brown, Eric Laffoon, or Carl and Beth Brassfield. Let's daily remember them and the work they are doing, praying for God to open doors for them, to give them favor, courage, wisdom and strength to make Christ known.

By the way, the good news for Paul in Acts 9 was Barnabas. Barnabas not only became an advocate for Paul, but partnered with him in the work of the gospel. I'm thankful for people like Barnabas because not only did God provide a Barnabas for Paul, but he has provided one for Rylee as well. Pray for them and their time in Wales, who knows what God can do through them and the intercessory prayers of the saints!

New Study Begins February 20

6:30 p.m., Room 124

That God loves us is the most profound truth in the universe. With the potential of this experience, why are many people who believe this still unable to fully utilize the power of God's love in their lives? This study by Dr. David Jeremiah reveals that not fully understanding and appreciating every critical dimension of God's love can lead to missed opportunities to experience His love. This Bible study is for adults of all ages.
